

2nd English Speaking Contest for graduate students at DICP

On Nov. 19, 2004, the 2nd English Speaking Contest for Graduate Students took place at DICP. There were 12 graduate students expressing their own opinions from different respects revolving at “Environment and the Future” – a most concerned topic among people right now. Mr. Yong LI, Mr. Teng MA, Ms. Fengya FAN, Graduate students from our group, took part in the contest. Mr. Yong LI won the first Prize. At the closing ceremony, Mr. Zhengju LU, Director of graduate students department, expressed his hope that by attending this kind of contest, all graduate students could be encouraged to learn English since English is becoming so important in our work and our life.